by the track as much as any performer in the event.

Foxy likes going of this nature and Harmakis may not be averse to it, provided the track is not unduly lumpy. On a sloppy track there could be no question that Harmakis would have the call. But to-day it seems as though Commodore must be considered the best until proof is afforded otherwise- and the point will be decided shortly after a o'clock this after-poon.

There carried the same weight—12 pounds—while Hymettus had six nounds more up and was defeated but a short margin. Moreover, Hennessey took Hymettus into heavy going after he seemed to have the race won on the Pfullips mare.

Hymettus ought to win to-day, with Thane in second position and Pettijohn third. The last race seems a light fit between several cambidates, and Doctor Scharff will be favored by the going. At that, Senta Ventura has been showing such improvement of late that it appears as if she could reverse the result of their last meeting.

AT UNION TRACK.

The track at Union to-day, if no more rain falls, should be pretty well died out, yet it will be slow, but not holding. The card is of a fair sort and four of the six races are made up of large fields.

The class seems to be assembled in the third race, at a mile and twenty yards. There will be but five starters, and at the first race, at a mile and twenty yards. There will be but five starters, and at the weight, 90 pounds, Huish looks the wirner. Bluish is just now in fine form. At this is really the class of the race, but with 18 nounds can scarce be relied upon to beat Bluish and T. G. Searborough. MeGOVERN WANTS TO FIGHT HERE. Former Feather-Weight Champion Desires Bout With Young Corbett.

That Terry McGovern will be Young Corbett's text opponent in the ring seems likely, judging from dispatches wired from New York, as the Denver boy and the Brooklynite are now dickering for a third meeting in the squared circle. More than this, it is before a club circle. More than this, it is before a club scheduled for this city by Jim Corbett that the men are hoping to battle.

That the men will be matched is practically certain, but Tom Corbett, brother of Jim, stated last night that no definite negotiations had been made with either fighter, as Jim would probably wait until he had secured suitable quarters before conducting a hattle of the sort.

Two or three locations have been offered to the former heavy-weight champion for fightclub purposes, but he has not concluded a lesse on any of the sites.

Efforts are being made in New York to have Jimmy Britt sign for a bout with Joe Ganz Jimmy Britt sign for a bout with Joe Ganz Britt stated positively, while here, that he did not care to fight a negre, so there is little like-lihood that the latter match will be arranged.

lihood that the latter match will be arranged.

Frankie Neil and Gus Hezensh may furnish the next hattle at the West End Club. The bantams are practically matched, and they will likely go on in a fitteen-round bout.

While the local fightguers would like to see Neil in the ring, it is regretable that Johnny Regan was not selected instead. As arranged at present, the average followers of the game cannot be blamed for thinking that Bezenah was merely selected as an easy mark for Neil—that he was chosen to give the Frisco man a cincle on first place.

Regan and Neil fought a twenty-round draw in their bout, and this contest, it would appear, would be more suitable. Harty Forbes is also thirsting for one final crack at Neil, and Attell is willing to meet bim. Any of these bouts would be preferable to the one arranged.

Julius Klein stated test night that he was ready to box Charley Cornwall, and that the latter could be accommodated with a side bet of $200 in case he wished to make a wager on the side. Klein is now working daily at the Buainess Men's Gymnasium.

Fonso Horse Runs Good Race at Fair Grounds and Easily Captures the Feature Event of the Day.

Warte Nicht showed bimsell a mudder of considerable ability in the feature event at the Fair Grounds yesterday, when he ame home ahead of Dave Sommers and Neversuch in the mile race of the pro-

On a track that was alternately sticky, rather impressive race, showing ability to out trouble. Dave Sommers was permitted to lead on shifferance for a time, only to be passed at pleasure by Warte Nicht when J. Booker decided to set him down. when J. Booker decided to set him down. The Fonso horse was the shortest-priced cannidate to win in the course of the day and he fully justified the short odies laid against his chances. Neversuch got a mars of play on acocum of his well-known mudruming treat-wites, but the imapy portions of the course seemed to prove a bit insansfactory to the little grading. The race slown the stretch was a procession, with Warte Nicat leading and have Sommers just the right distance behind to catch the closs of dirt thrown from the winner's books. Just in line behind came Neversuch, getting petted in the same furshion by the dirt Sommers threw back as he run. And so they crossed the wire, with Notice Resem at a very respectful distance in the front. Old Clales found a track that he liked or a field he could bear in the third race and wen by a short margin, just lasting ions crough to stadl off Duetor Kine's rush at the end. The latter would have won had the race been twenty vards longer. Abelard was another winner who just managed to get over the line front. Piller, who was very slow to begin, was carching the Schotz coit at every stride and ought to have been the winner of the second race. Crime, from the Bratton within was the count and Triple Silver.

Jerry Hunt ran a good race in the last event and proved an easy winner, although it was bedeved the course was a bit too lumpy for his tastes. Lord Haven, who ran wide on his last out, and who was selected by this paper to win, led for the first even furlengs and was then pussed by Hunt. Lord Huven was second, and a to I could easily have been obtained against him for the place.

Echolalie was another refrence modder who found that he could solve the course and who just beat out Preakness in the last few jumps, although Echeslale was considerably the best on the track that prevailed.

Doctor McAlester of the Missouri State University Faculty is expected to attend a sale of yearlings from his stud farm, which will be held in the paddock at 1920 this morning. The get of Guido The Fonse herse was the shortest-priced dartha will be seid as well as some youngsters by imported Laurium. Eleven yearlings are in the bunch, including a filly out of Gold Bangle, the dam of Johnny McHale.

GUS LANKA TOOK FEATURE AT UNION

Was the Favorite Representative of the Rice Stable-Little Margaret Won at 12 to 1-Rose Dodge a Snap.

The card at Union yesterday was good and the atendance large. Gus Lanka of the Rice stable won the feature. Courage at 39 to 1 ran second and Orleans was third. Boomerack was anchored with 123

Rose Dodge, at 7 to 1 in the first race, was really the soft spot on the card, but few knew it until after the race was run. Half Tag, at even money, was a fals favorite and was disgracefully beaten by Rose Dodge, although being best of the others. Arthur Stilwell was scratched The second race was really the most spirited, and the bookmakers were given a heavy play against it. Done S., the favorite, at 6 to 5, was probably best, but was given a miserable ride by Sinclair. He took her all over the track and twice got her into a pocket coming down the got her into a pocket coming nown the stretch. Deedle S. was good enough to run around her field and win. George gave Banama Cream a good ride, rated the mare nicely and set her down in the stretch. Lowe made the most of Barrica and challenged the winner at the end. Dedie S. was third.

Rain or Shine greatly outclassed the field in the fourth race. Murphy held him behind Fairbury to the stretch turn and then came on with him and won by eight lengths, pulled up. Cursus ran a disappointing race.

After many attempts Little Margaret finally won the fifth race yesterday, and thuse who have been following her every out and did not desert her were amply rewarded, for she closed in the books at 12 to 1. Bart Howe ran a good race and was teatten by half a length. Plantagment was backed down from 2 to 1 to 8 to 5. With too weight the long delay at the nost proved to her disadvantage.

Planet, the even-money favorite, did the right thing in the last event, but was hard pressed by Sheer. Moderator came with a rush at the end.

Somenos, a valuable imported horse and a well-known racer, belonging to R. R. Rice, died in his stall at Union Park yesterday. Cautain Rice expressed the belief that the animal had in some way been poisoned. Strenuous efforts were made to save the horse after his condition was discovered. The owner valued Somenos at $2500.
